Prayer Requests:

Recently, God has been strengthening and growing my spiritual walk. This April 2nd marked the 12 year anniversary of my father's death. God has continually shown His love, grace, and provision for my family in these last 12 years.

I have to say there is something about God meeting you in a life changing moment that makes you feel so loved. So many times in our lives we forget because we spend so much time emphasizing the pain. I will forever remember that moment.

Besides reflecting time on these last 12 years, I also have something to plan for. At the beginning of May I will

- The move back to the apartment, that the transition would be easy and smooth.
- The last $1886 in monthly donations would come in by this summer.
- Continued health and strengthening of immune system.

move back to my apt in Anaheim. This is so bittersweet for me because I have loved and so appreciated the love and support I have received from the couple I've been living with. It has been a truly has been an honor to stay with them the last four months. It has been rich in fellowship, support, and learning more about myself and about my fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. The rest and renewal I've experienced while living here has been an incredible blessing. As I move back home, it has been a good reminder of how far I have come in my goal. I have $1886 in monthly support left to raise!! God has reminded me that I need to be in continuous prayer regarding my goal. He can move mountains. He can surely raise all that is needed. I was reminded of this when a friend was shared a verse God gave to her and her husband regarding supporting me.

Dear friend, you are faithful in what you are doing for the brothers, even though they are strangers to you. They have told the church about your love. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God. It was for the sake of the Name that they went out, receiving no help from the pagans. We ought therefore to show hospitality to such men so that we may work together for the truth. 3 John 5-8

It was just a moment where God said, even when you don't see it I am working raising up your team, working in all of your hearts and aligning them for this calling.
